BLOWING BUBBLES

Bubbles, bubbles, who has troubles?
That's a case of what to eat?

Eat the flakes as light as bubbles
Give yourself a treat.

AT SINGING SCHOOL

Sing from daylight until night
Sing from dark until its light,

"Kellogg's Corn Flakes every morn
It's the sweet heart of the corn."

GOOD FRIENDS

Said the Elephant to his friend the Giraffe. If only I had such a fine, long neck,
"Your taster's so long it makes me laugh. 'd eat Kellogg's Corn Flakes by the neck!"

QUEER FELLOWS

If you wish to see something queer, Change their feet, too, try it and see Put other heads on the Cow, Horse and Deer. How very funny they all will be.

A GOOD TIME

What are we so happy about?
Turn this page and you'll find out.

I know that you'd be happy, too.
If such a lunch was spread for you.

JUNGLE QUEEN

In Jungle Land, so far away,
These funny people live and play.

They roam at will and rule supreme.
They have crowned Miss Hippo, Queen

If there is any place you wish to go

They never get frisky or run away

ROLLER SKATING

We whiz along at a rapid pace,
Because we three are running a race.

The fun of skating nobody knows
Until he himself skating goes

MUSICIANS

Let your life be good and funny
 Let your food be light and sunny.

Sing a song of little money,
 Get a food as sweet as honey.

HAVING FUN

"Let's change about," the Lion said,
 Suppose we take the feet and heads

Of the Camel Donkey and Kangaroo,
 Our friends won't know us then, would you?

The nicest thing that you could eat

THE SERENADE

Sir Donkey thought to serenade
His friends, the Camel and Kangaroo.

But they seem very much dismayed
And don't stay till he's through.

Kellogg's

FUNNY JUNGLELAND MOVING PICTURES

To market, to market, jiggedy jog,
Bring back Corn Flakes made by Kellogg!
Crispy and brown and good as can be;
I love them - you'll love them, - nother helping, that's me!
